QUIZ NIGHT ROUND

Food and drink quiz

Fifteen questions on food and drink from Britain and around the world.
Write your answers on the lines.

Team name _____

Score /15

1. What is the main ingredient of hummus?
2. Which country does feta cheese come from?
3. What type of pastry is used to make profiteroles?
4. Which oranges are traditionally used to make marmalade?
5. What three ingredients make Yorkshire pudding batter?
6. Which spice is the most expensive by weight?
7. Which Italian pasta's name means 'little ears'?
8. Which blue cheese is named after a village in Cambridgeshire?
9. What flavour is the filling of a Bakewell tart, besides jam?
10. Goulash is the national dish of which country?
11. Which alcoholic drink is made by fermenting honey?
12. Which vegetable gives borscht its deep red colour?
13. What kind of fish is a kipper?
14. Which county gives its name to a protected pasty?
15. What is the Japanese word for raw sliced fish?

ANSWERS

The answers

1. Chickpeas What is the main ingredient of hummus?
2. Greece Which country does feta cheese come from?
3. Choux pastry What type of pastry is used to make profiteroles?
4. Seville oranges Which oranges are traditionally used to make marmalade?
5. Flour, eggs and milk What three ingredients make Yorkshire pudding batter?
6. Saffron Which spice is the most expensive by weight?
7. Orecchiette Which Italian pasta's name means 'little ears'?
8. Stilton Which blue cheese is named after a village in Cambridgeshire?
9. Almond What flavour is the filling of a Bakewell tart, besides jam?
10. Hungary Goulash is the national dish of which country?
11. Mead Which alcoholic drink is made by fermenting honey?
12. Beetroot Which vegetable gives borscht its deep red colour?
13. A herring (split and smoked) What kind of fish is a kipper?
14. Cornwall Which county gives its name to a protected pasty?
15. Sashimi What is the Japanese word for raw sliced fish?