QUIZ NIGHT ROUND

UK geography quiz

Fifteen questions on the geography of the United Kingdom. Write your answers on the lines.

Team name _____

Score /15

1. What is the highest mountain in England?
2. What is the highest mountain in Wales?
3. What is the capital of Wales?
4. What is the capital of Northern Ireland?
5. What is the largest lake in the UK by area?
6. Which river flows through London?
7. Which Scottish city is known as the Granite City?
8. What is the most northerly point of mainland Britain?
9. Which is the largest national park in England?
10. Which island lies off the coast of Hampshire, across the Solent?
11. Which sea lies between Great Britain and Ireland?
12. The Angel of the North stands beside which town?
13. In which city is the Royal Liver Building?
14. Which county is nicknamed ‘God’s own county’?
15. What is the longest river in Scotland?

ANSWERS

The answers

1. Scafell Pike What is the highest mountain in England?
2. Snowdon (Yr Wyddfa) What is the highest mountain in Wales?
3. Cardiff What is the capital of Wales?
4. Belfast What is the capital of Northern Ireland?
5. Lough Neagh What is the largest lake in the UK by area?
6. The Thames Which river flows through London?
7. Aberdeen Which Scottish city is known as the Granite City?
8. Dunnet Head What is the most northerly point of mainland Britain?
9. The Lake District Which is the largest national park in England?
10. The Isle of Wight Which island lies off the coast of Hampshire, across the Solent?
11. The Irish Sea Which sea lies between Great Britain and Ireland?
12. Gateshead The Angel of the North stands beside which town?
13. Liverpool In which city is the Royal Liver Building?
14. Yorkshire Which county is nicknamed 'God's own county'?
15. The River Tay What is the longest river in Scotland?